Minutes from the Last Meeting

Acceptance proposed: Alan. Seconded: Ken. Minutes were accepted.

Matters arising from Earlier Meetings

New entrance gates: Vic will contact, again, the person who volunteered to help. The new gates are made and primed. They will receive a final coat of paint and be installed in the Spring.*

Lunch Event: David agreed to canvas the community via the forum on the option of a weekday lunch instead of a Sunday lunch. The result of the canvassing favoured a Sunday lunch.*

Sandon Parish Council Report

Martin reported on PC activities:

- There are still problems in Hall Lane. Various unauthorised and illegal activities.
- Various developments on East Hanningfield Road were discussed, including the fact that none of the changes required to be made on May Farm have been started.
- The Annual Assembly will be held on 25th April.

Environment

No comments.

Social Events

Sunday Lunch Event: Vic agreed to approach a number of establishments in the area with a view to arranging a lunch for £25-30 for a Sunday March 12, 19 or 25.

Newsletter

Distribution of the newsletter is currently restricted to households who contributed to HGCA funds. The intention of this to encourage more people to pay the subscriptions. In practice, this does not appear to have worked but has made distribution more complicated. It was agreed to resume distribution to all households.
